

Julia Lloyd George

New Collection – Summer Colours

Central to Julia's work is COLOUR. Julia has a natural eye for colour which can be seen in all her designs. Julia works mainly in 18 carat yellow gold, which she often leaves in its natural state. The rich organic yellow of the unpolished gold enhances the colour of her stones, an effect she feels passionate about, as it illustrated in her Tourmaline ring.

Multi-coloured Tourmalines necklace

Julia's new collection consists of many wonderful, vivid, brightly coloured Tourmalines and fashionable highly sought after Paraiba Tourmalines, Mogok Burmese Zircon and Blue New Zealand pearls

Tanzanite ear studs mixed with Paraiba Tourmalines.

With 30 years of experience as a jeweller, Julia has the skills to carry out pieces to perfection. As a result she has a wide and loyal following particularly for commission work at which she excels, interpreting the client's ideas into one off beautiful pieces.

Julia's jewellery is beautiful, wearable and tactile.

Nature's influence inspired her wavy ring, torque and earrings
